

NETTER SYMPOSIUM PRELIMINARY SCHEDULE (APRIL 21-22, 2017)

Friday April 21, 2017 (Evening event, starting around 6:30)

- Opening night with light refreshment at PAFA.
- Introductory remarks and lecture: Leonardo at 500: A Lesson in Creativity – S.Mangione, MD

Saturday April 22, 2017

- College Building of Thomas Jefferson University (1025 Walnut Street, 2nd Floor)
- Morning Activities (Foerderer Auditorium, 2nd floor College Bldg, 1025 Wlanut St.)

Lectures: The Science of Art and the Art of Science

- 8:00-8:30AM Morning breakfast and Registration (second floor of College Bldg)
- 8:30-8:45AM Introductory remarks by Dean Tycocinski and Dr. Mangione
- 8:45-9:30AM Francine Mary Netter - What Netter Represents for Medicine
- 9:30-10:15 AM Tait D. Shanafelt, MD - Physician's Burnout: A Concerning Epidemic
- 10:15-10:30AM Coffee Break (second floor of College Bldg)
- 10:30-11:15AM Alexandra Horowitz, PhD- On Looking: Eleven Walks with Expert Eyes (http://www.nytimes.com/2012/12/16/opinion/sunday/walk-like-a-fish.html?_r=0)
- 11:15-12PM Bennet Lorber, MD: The Well-rounded Humanist Physician
(How to Practice the Art of Science and the Science of Art)

- Lunch (on your own)

- Afternoon Activities

(1) Viewing of Competing Artworks (1-3PM)

- Artworks digitally displayed on the second floor of the College Building
- Contest divided into five categories: 1) Photography, 2) Painting, 3) Drawing, 4) Printmaking and 5) Sculpture.

(2) Hands-on Workshops (1-3PM)

- Breakout rooms in College, Blumle and Alumni Hall Buildings.
- Workshops on printmaking, anatomy drawing, landscape painting, and Nigerian/Ghanian pottery provided by Fleisher Art Memorial.
- Workshop on Improvs, acting, playwriting provided by Lantern Theater Co.
- Workshop on Visual Literacy/Visual Thinking Strategy provided by PAFA.

- 3-3:15 Coffee Break (second floor of the College Building)

All following events in Foerderer Auditorium unless indicated otherwise

- 3:15-4:15 Presentations of various Medical Humanities Programs in Philadelphia
- 4:15 -4:30 Award ceremony for the 5 competing categories
- 4:30-5:15 Panel Discussion with representatives of art institutions and medical schools
- 5:15-5:30 Wine and Cheese Refreshment (second floor of the College Building)
- 5:30-7PM TJU and Lantern Theater Co. – Readers’ Theater (Foerderer Auditorium)